Dear Recruiting Team:

I am writing to express my interest and enthusiasm about applying to the software developer position at your company. I am interested at this opportunity because I believe with my skills and experiences, I can accomplish and exceed what this position asks.

I am currently a senior studying Computer Science and Mathematics of Finance in the University of Michigan — Ann Arbor. During my college years, I demonstrated strong skills in web engineering by developing projects using C/C++, Node.Js, React,Js, Python, etc. I am currently a backend developer intern for Divercity.io, where I utilizes JavaScript and Node.js to implement backend micro-services of a consumer facing product. The experience allowed me to put my skills to polish in an industry setting, as well as preparing me to working professionally in an agile team. I believe my strengths and experiences will aid me to success at your company.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to hearing from you.
